Semester - VI

Preamble:

This paper aims at creating the awareness of the critical creed, multiple perspectives, theoretical bases and actual practice of relating theories, approaches, and perspectives to a literary piece. Further, the paper is an attempt to integrate theory with practice making the students able to think critically. With the application of theoretical knowledge in like-like situations, the students are expected to lead more balanced life. The introduction of wider range material is with the end to bridge the gap between lab and land and develop the practical knowledge and skill of the students. The inclusion of approaches, representative theories and practical criticism would enhance the capabilities of the students. The practical criticism included in the syllabus is with the aim to make students more intensive and practice-oriented.

Objectives:

1. To introduce different approaches to the students.
2. To make the students aware of theoretical diversity.
3. To enable the students to understand different literary devices.

Course Outcomes:

By the end of the course the students will be able:

1. To identify the features of different critical approaches.
2. To understand an essay from romantic criticism.
3. To understand an essay from 20th century literary criticism
4. To understand literary devices.
